

To whom it may concern,
Please dismiss the efforts of the National Association of Broadcasters as they try to sensor satellite radio and under the capitalistic society that this country was founded upon.

Clearly, the efforts are a violation of not only the First Amendment, but are a hindrance to improving radio programming for those of us who choose to pay for our satellite radio service.

Sincerely,
Jordan Wiens
Rancho PV, California